- “The Fear of God Would Remain & Grow” Chronicles:
 - Tonight, Lord, we ask who shall abide in your tabernacle? We say your people Israel would never be shaken. We speak the truth. The fear of God would remain and grow, and it would lead to the salvation of Israel, for the eyes of the Lord are upon them this night. In Jesus’ name, amen.
 - Who shall abide in the tabernacle of the Almighty God? Your chosen people will not be shaken as we in America stand firm side by side with the Israeli people. As Christians, we speak the truth as we echo the scriptures that reflect your devotion toward Israel. Lord, let the people in every nation see your hand move during this season and the fear of God grow mightily as you prove your greatness. We decree in this sanctuary the salvation of Israel is coming forth and will grow at a supernatural speed. The cross will speak as it glows all over the nation in the windows of the people. The eye of the Lord is upon his chosen people of Israel. And we will celebrate the victory with our brothers and our sisters. Amen.
 - Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle and who are your people that will never be shaken? They are those who are passionate for you and always speak the truth. Those that embrace the fear and awe of you in such a way that it remains and grows in them and out from them. They are your people, God, that cry day and night for the salvation of Israel, remembering always that the cross has the final word. May your all-seeing eye always be upon them. In Jesus’ name, amen.
 - Who shall abide in the tabernacle of the Lord? Who will find their safety in his hand? Will man understand who is the true God, the creator of all things? Those that find him will never be shaken. And those that speak the truth of the one true God will be partakers of the salvation of Israel. Who understands that what Jesus accomplished on the cross became the final word of hope? And those that find that hope will fear God; and that fear would remain in them so that they would know that the eye of the Lord would stay upon them in their day of trouble as they abide in the tabernacle of the Lord.
 - Bless those who shall abide in thy tabernacle; stay away from Satan so you may never hear his evil cackle. Believe in Jesus and your foundation shall never be shaken; always be on guard because the devil is always lying and faking. Trust in the Lord and listen as he will speak the truth; His words have blessed us since the days of our youth. Pray for the salvation of Israel and peace in the Middle East; for those that are not his shall be burning with that unholy beast. The eye of the Lord is upon them at all times; may all of Hamas be awakened and follow your holy signs. The cross has the final word that breaks every sin and curse; just open the Holy Bible and soak in every blessed verse.
 - Lord, we ask you tonight, “Who shall abide in thy tabernacle?” And we find the answer in your word that those who abide in you will never be shaken, and they will always speak the truth. We pray for Israel and for America that the fear of God would remain and grow in us, and that the fear of God would keep us. We pray that the salvation of Israel would rise up out of Zion because we know the cross has the final word. So, in the fear of the Lord and in the spirit of truth, we know the eye of the Lord is upon them, Israel, as they abide in your tabernacle and as they are not shaken from the presence of our God. We ask this in Jesus’ name, amen.
