- “Cries of America” Chronicles:
  - Lord, as we seek your face and wisdom, we will escape the snare of the enemy for our nation. If we press into you Lord, our help is in your name only. There will be godly men of understanding who will take political seats and lead us in a plain path as designed by you, Lord. Tonight, Lord, pick a side and we will stand with you. As we see the glory in this land again, we are free and with God's mercy we will stay free in this great country. Help me to trust you Lord to hear your voice during this election, and that I will put my trust in you and not in princes (smooth talking politicians). Blessed is the Lord, who has not given us up as prey because you love your children, and you promise not to forsake us. It is at your discretion that you have made men great. And we speak this greatness over righteous men and women seeking office. Lord, we believe you will do the impossible for America; for us and America will be saved, and that the election will be fair and peaceful. We decree in the name of Jesus that truth will be heard and revered for our democracy. America, you will stand under a banner of truth as one nation under God. America will be known as a country that will seek the Lord all ye humble of the land; and we seek his face. Your truth, God, will not be suppressed because the people will know your ways. Let the banner of life and liberty over this nation reign. In Jesus name.
  - God, we are so grateful to escape this snare of the fowler. We acknowledge that our help is only in your name. We ask that you would raise up your men and women of understanding for this hour; that you would lead us into a plain path you have chosen for this country. God, pick a side that we may be free. Help us, O Lord, to not put our trust in princes. Blessed be the Lord, who has not given us up as prey; as it is at your discretion that you make men great. Lord, we declare that this day America will be saved! That the elections will be fair! That the truth will be heard and revered! That the banner of truth will once again fly over our country. Seek the Lord all ye humble of - the land. See to it that the truth is not suppressed. Banner of life, fly! In Jesus name.

- As a country, Lord, we have escaped the snare of the enemy only by your grace and mercy. We proclaim and acknowledge that our help is in the name of the Lord. We ask you to appoint and confirm by the votes of the American people, men of understanding of your word and your ways. We cry out as the American people, and on behalf of the American people, that you 'lead me in a plain path' as each of us prepare to vote. We ask you, God, pick a side that we may come into alignment with your side. We are free, and in this freedom, we ask you to help us pick your side—the side of truth and Godly wisdom and integrity. You have asked us to "put not your trust in princes", so we look to you for the salvation of America through this election. We declare that blessed be the Lord who has not given us up as prey; and we rejoice in your word that says it is at your discretion that men are made great. So as a House of Prayer, we stand in agreement that righteousness will prevail and America will be saved. We ask your hand to move to let the elections be fair; and we ask that truth would be heard and revered as evidence of this move of your hand. Wave your banner of truth over this country, Lord, to bring us back to you and to your side. As a House of Prayer, we ask all Christians to rise up and seek the Lord all ye humble of the land, that truth is not suppressed during this election. May your banner of life cover this country as we turn our hearts toward you to become a country of truth and righteousness forever and ever. Amen.
