

KINGDOM CHRONICLES FROM HOUSE OF PRAYER

November 29, 2023

- Words for Chronicle Titled: “Angels of Love Over Others”
 - But we are risen and stand upright—Psalm 20:8
 - May the Lord answer you in the day of your troubles—Psalm 20:1
 - The Lord will give you the desires of your heart—Psalm 20:4
 - Accept our offerings—Psalm 20:3
 - May He send you help from His sanctuary—Psalm 20:2
 - May the Lord fulfill all your petitions—James 1:26-27, Psalm 20:5
 - May the Lord revive your hearts—Isaiah 57:15
 - There is hope
- “Angels of Love Over Others” Chronicles:
 - A Message to New Life from the Lord: Continue to pray for these who are needing prayer that have been mentioned this night. That they may be raised up and stand upright. That the Lord would hear them in the day of their trouble; and the Lord would give them the desires of their heart and hear their petitions. That he would send help from his sanctuary and give them hope for the future. And Lord, also, New Life, that we would begin to ask God how we can show your love in practical ways and that we would call forth the angels of love for others.
 - Lord God, we thank you that these as your people can say, they are risen and stand upright. Lord, we ask you would answer them in their day of trouble; that you would give them the desires of your heart. Accept our offerings of prayer for these Lord, that though they may now be empty, that you will send them away full. Send angelic help from your holy sanctuary to fulfill all their petitions. Revive their hearts as only you can do. We know that in you, Lord, there is always hope and trust and we thank you for that in Jesus’ name, amen.
 - But we are risen and stand upright in our Lord; we’re surely lost if we depend upon our own accord. May the Lord answer you in the day of your troubles and loss; just give it to him to polish and gloss. The Lord will give you the desires of your heart if it is true and pure; never turn away from him and fall into Satan's lure. Accept our offerings that are good in your holy site; whether if it's a ton of gold or a lowly widow's might. May he send you help from his sanctuary when you feel all his dire; reach for him and he will pull you from any muck and mire. May the Lord fulfill all of your petitions and heartfelt requests, always give it to him and never be broken or stressed. May the Lord revive your hearts and give you a new breath, only through his salvation can we bypass a forever death. There is hope only through his glorious salvation; we need to pray for our crumbling morals in this once godly nation. Amen.
 - Lord, we have been brought down, but we are risen and stand upright as you move in our hearts and minds. We feel cast down at times, Lord, but we hear you speaking a prophetic word over your people tonight as you remind us, “May the Lord answer you in the day of your troubles.” As we align our hearts and our thoughts and our intentions with you and your word, Lord, we believe your word that says, “The Lord will give you the desires of your heart.” We ask you to accept our offerings of thanksgiving and praise as we bow before you in total surrender. We declare to all those who are downcast and hurting, “May he send you help from his sanctuary, and may the Lord fulfill all your petitions” as you bring your heart into alignment with God's will for your life. We speak to the broken to rise up and look to heaven in the midst of your trial; and may the Lord revive your hearts as he floods you with faith, hope, and love from his throne room. Thank you for reminding us that there is hope and there is peace that can only come from the Lord as he moves and intervenes in your current situation and as you move toward victory! In Jesus’ name, amen.

- Dan Hanselman Prophetic Word: Philippians 1:6: So rise, arise for the glory of the Lord has risen on you; and this is the season that many will need to see that light. For they are downcast and trodden down by the circumstances of this world; but you have the hope within you to give them life more abundantly. So, be on alert, be on alert to see the ones that I place within your path, so that you can give them hope, my hope, so that they can come into the fullness that I have called them to be who they are and where they are. I am with you in this time, this hour. So, let the Holy Spirit in you speak through you for he will give you the wisdom and counsel that is needed to share my love to them to break them free of their bondages and addictions says the Lord. Amen.