2. Strength to Stand Chronicle: Thank you Lord, whose strength is in you and who gives us strength to strength. We appeareth before God as he fights for our justice and our deliverance. No good thing withheld from his presence in his people. You are our sun and our shield, and we continue praising you, O God. Your grace and your glory are prevalent as the keeper of the door of our hearts. Lord, may we never thirst again as we look upon you as our amiable savior. You are the living God.
