- “Do Not Be Deceived” Chronicles:
 - The Holy Ghost said, “Blessed is the one that fears God, that our children will be like olive shoots.” These olive shoots will come as a provision in fearing the Lord. As we fear the Lord, we will be standing firm and courageous on the Lord because the Lord has anointed us. Since he has anointed us, we will stand against this abomination that others might escape the snare of the devil. We bless the seed and in that we will be a happy man. In Jesus’ name.
 - Blessed is the one who fears the Lord and lives a righteous life. Your word says, Lord, there are provisions in fearing you and trusting in you. As we stand firm and courageous in the Lord our children will be saved and set free because the Lord has anointed us. We will stand firm in our faith and fear of the Lord. We declare we will stand against the abomination in Jesus’ name, no matter what the world says. We must pray and seek the Lord to escape the snare of the devil and to walk in the light. Bless the seed of the righteous man who will fight for the children. In spite of what the world says, we will be happy in standing for God because we fear the almighty one. Amen.
 - Blessed are the ones who fear the Lord because they know there is provision in fearing him. To that end we will stand firm and courageous on your word, Lord, because you have anointed us for this hour. We will stand against this abomination in your name and by the power of your Holy Spirit, that many may escape the snare of the devil. Bless the seed of those that have ears to hear and give them strength to carry it forth. They will be eternally happy for standing for God.
 - Lord, your word says that blessed is the one that fears God; so, give us more insight and wisdom to have a greater understanding of the fear of the Lord. We need this insight to patiently cultivate the children so that our children will be like olive shoots. We thank you, Lord, that there’s provision in fearing the Lord and in standing firm and courageous on the Lord. Because the Lord has anointed us, we vow before you individually and corporately to stand against this abomination; and to pray for the lost to be saved to escape the snare of the devil. We ask you to bless the seed that has been sown by you through Glenn Beck and to water it for your glory. May your people respond for you because we will be happy for standing for God and for the truth of your Word. Lead us, Lord, and be a light into my path now and forever. Thank you for the reminder to “be sure your lamps are full of oil”. And we respond to you joyfully. Amen.
