

KINGDOM CHRONICLES FROM HOUSE OF PRAYER

November 8, 2023

- Words for Chronicle Titled: “A New Breed of Leaders”
 - I will love thee, oh Lord—Psalm 18:1
 - All we need to do is call on you—Psalm 18:3
 - A new breed of leaders
 - Peace I leave with you—John 14:26
 - Trained with weapons of warfare worship—Psalm 18:34
 - For you have armed them with strength for the battle—Psalm 18:39
 - That God would enlighten the hearts and break through the darkness—Psalm 18:27-33
 - The Lord is our stronghold—Psalm 18:2
- “A New Breed of Leaders” Chronicles:
 - As we come into this holy place, we shout a decree that states: “We will love thee, oh Lord, no matter the circumstances. As we look at the war-torn area of Israel, let your chosen people understand the seriousness of calling upon you, Lord Jesus. A new breed of leaders will rise up in Israel that will hear the voice of the Messiah. As the warrior angels are released over Israel, we are reassured of God's promise that his peace is with his children as we trust in him. Raise up the young people of Israel and train them with weapons of warfare in worship because this will be their strength in battle. We speak into the spiritual realm, and we declare that God will enlighten the hearts of Hamas, and he will break through the darkness. The Lord is the stronghold for America and Israel, and we will see his glory come forth, in Jesus holy name.
 - We love you, Lord, for there is such comfort in knowing all we need to do is to call on you and you will answer. For by your design, you never fail to leave us with your peace. Lord, we thank you for raising up a new and unique breed of leaders, those that you yourself have trained up with a weapon of warfare worship. You have armed them with strength for the battle. You have also enlightened their hearts to break through the darkness. Lord, we declare you are our strong hold and our strong tower. Our trust is in you. In Jesus name.
 - We gather to proclaim our love to you as we sound the horn which represents your strength in our spirits. I love thee, oh Lord. We lift up our voices for you; you are so worthy to be praised. You told us all we need to do is call on you, Lord, and we are here now calling on you. May your presence and your spirit dwell within us and stretch to all corners of our world. We call forward a new breed of leaders into battle who are called into and trained with weapons of warfare worship. We bring forward worship and prayer in song, in spirit, and in service. We will see strongholds torn down and mountains moved. Lord, we thank you for arming us with strength for this battle and the peace that comes only from you as we face the days to come. Shake our foundations, Lord, and let your light shine from this place as we stand firm on your words and move in and into our callings. Thank you for being our stronghold steadfast and pure. Lord, ignite our hearts and the hearts of every believer to stand in your truth and speak your truth into the darkest places that need your light, and in the shadow of your wings, we will find your peace. We will not be shaken. We will claim this ground for you to come and set the captives free.
 - I will love thee, oh Lord, and I know that all we need to do is call on you. You are raising up a new breed of leaders from all generations; and as you lead us, you are saying “My peace I leave with you to lead with strength and resolve in me.” I pray that your church will rise up to be trained with weapons of warfare worship by the very lives that we live unto you, Lord, our Father. You have reminded us tonight that you have delivered us from our strong enemy as you did in the days of David; for you have armed them with strength for the battle. We rejoice with David that the Lord also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice so that God would enlighten the hearts and break through the darkness to set his people free. We declare the Lord is our stronghold as we look to him to destroy the enemy under our feet, for we will not be shaken. In Jesus' name, amen.

- Dan Hanselman's Prophetic word: Psalm 18:30. As for God, his way is perfect. The word of the Lord is flawless. He's a shield for all who take refuge in him.
 - His ways are higher than our ways, his thoughts greater than our thoughts. For I am releasing a song: a new song over this area. Tune your ears to hear the spirit sing forth. Tune your ears to hear that sweet melody. For I am calling those to take hold of the song and release it to the land. The seed has been planted: the seed for you to take hold of. So, open your spirit to hear the song. Open your spirit to release the song over the area that you walk in. For I am delivering this area. I am taking the ground that the enemy has stolen. Strengthen yourself with this song that I am releasing. Strengthen those around you with the song that I give for the hour is now. You will see my hand move in a mighty powerful way. For my word does not go out and not come back to me void but it goes out and accomplishes what I send it out to accomplish. You will see things fall apart. They are being shaken because they are not built on my structure, my firm rock. They were made by man, not by me; so, watch them fall but do not be shaken yourself. For what is not of me, will be shaken off of you. And that which is of me that has grown in you will grow even greater for the soil is good. I have removed rocks and stones and boulders. I have cleared the land, even the swampy area in you, through my precious Son. So, do not let the enemy destroy and come in and throw the rocks back in. But take forth my song: a deliverance to the nation, to the area, and watch me set the captives free says the Lord. Amen.