- “Be Of Good Courage” Chronicles:
 - Be of good courage. Why I say this is because I know, and I believe that he delivers us. That he is the lamp and light unto our feet; that you are the strength of my life, and I need not be afraid. He hides me in his shelter, and in this place, I can behold the beauty that is His. I will sing praises to him as he hides us in his presence that we might have peace and wait on him. So again, I say, be of good courage.
 - Father, we stand upon your promises of healing reassured that you, Father, deliver us from all demonic attacks. To all those that are afflicted, we declare God is your lamp and the light during your times of trouble. Although the body may be weak, we shout into the spiritual realms, “God will be our strength, the strength of our lives and none will be afraid.” When discouragement tries to creep in, the Lord will remind all those that he hides them in his shelter and comforts them. In this sanctuary, we declare that we will see the beauty of the Lord as bodies are healed. Hide us in your presence as you, Father, perform signs and wonders among your people. The Lord would say peace be unto my people as you wait upon me your Father and your healer.
 - The Lord God, who is a very present help in time of trouble, will not fail to deliver the people that he loves. He is a lamp and a light to all who diligently seek Him. He is the strength of our lives in these days in which we are living. So, we need not be afraid for he will hide us. He will shelter us under the shadow of his wings as we behold his beauty and sing praises unto him. So, Lord, we beseech you to hide those who are afflicted in the safety of your presence. Give them peace, Lord, as we wait on you. In Jesus’ name.
 - Father, through your faithfulness, love, mercy, and compassion, we ask that you deliver these individuals brought before you in this house of worship. We ask that you would continue to be a lamp unto these individuals, a light of hope before them to give them an expected end. We ask that you strengthen these individual lives and remove all fear from their situations. We ask that you would hide these individuals in the shadow of your glory and the shelter of your arms. We ask that you place before these individuals the beauty of your name, Yahweh, the breath of life. Father, as we sing praises unto you for your faithfulness, hide these individuals in your presence under your peace, as they wait upon you for their deliverance. Father, by the authority you have invested in this house of worship, we speak hope and courage over all these individuals for a testimony of your glory. Amen.

- In this place of our House of Prayer, we declare that he delivers us by his powerful hand and in the precious name of Jesus. The Lord and his word are a lamp and light unto my path, and they reveal to me your way. You are the strength of my life; I will not be afraid of anything that tries to stand against me. He will hide me in his shelter and set me upon a rock as I behold the beauty of the Lord and inquire in his temple. I will sing praises unto the Lord because I hold onto the promise that you hide us in your presence. I receive your peace, wait on the Lord, and I stand in hope and in faith to be of good courage all the days of my life. And I pray this in Jesus` name. Amen.
- Dan Hanselman's Prophetic Word: I'm sensing there's an excitement in the atmosphere. And the Lord is about ready to loose things on us that have been prayed. The angels are being released. The great cloud of witnesses are cheering us on. They are saying press in, press in, keep calling forth for the Lord is good. The Lord is good. The Lord is good, and we have the greatest dad in the world. We have the greatest dad in the world standing behind us saying, go for it. Go for it. Keep calling on my name. I will not let you down, I will not forsake you. You will see things change; you will see things come about that you have been praying for for years. And in a matter of a moment, it will pop forth. I will do it, says the Lord, for my hand is on you. So, keep coming, keep coming, for you are my temple, and I have called you a place where I dwell. So, call on my spirit to rise-up within you. Within you, let the spirit flow out as never before. Fear not! Fear not, for man cannot do a thing to you other than put you in the ground, but I bring you to life. I give you sight. I give you ears to hear. I give you a tongue to speak forth, so do not hold back any longer. But come, come into my presence. Come into my presence. Get the word and take it forth and slay the giants before you says the Lord.
