- “Voices Being Silenced” Chronicles:

- Dear Lord, Voices have been silenced but we are required to sing a song in our pits. Help us to step out in Holy boldness as you give us a new song to sing, songs of deliverance. And let the people of God testify as God releases explosive testimonies and may it be life changing to us and all the others around us. Amen.
- Father, we declare tonight, that our voices will not be silenced in your sanctuary because of your wonderful glory and love. It will require of us a joyous song because we are so grateful for your presence. Lord, we ask tonight, that you give us a new song that is birthed out of this great revival. As this region moves into your will Lord, we will sing a song in spite of our captivity because we are being delivered out of the pit and into the light. Everywhere we stand, a holy boldness will be upon us as we witness to the lost and sing songs of deliverance. We will testify of your goodness and your grace in this house. We decree that in New Life Church, explosive testimonies will flow in abundance. Hear our prayer, oh Lord, for Sunday. Amen.
- Lord, we shout to the heavens, our voices will not be silenced. Tho enemies have required of us a song as a mockery, we will sing our own song of praise to God despite our captivity. Lord, give us a new song of joy that honors you and lifts you high. Lord, let your holy boldness and songs of deliverance lift the rafters on this house. Let explosive testimonies be released for your glory. In Jesus' name, amen.
- Lord, we do ask and pray, as the enemy is trying to silence the voices of this congregation, it's my prayer, oh God, that we can see that it is required of us to sing a new song. Lord, give us the resolve, the courage, the grit, the boldness to sing our song in this fight of our captivity, in this Babylonian culture that we live in. It seems, oh God, that our song of praise has such a distinct sound, in the Babylonian culture. It seems, oh God, that you are going to give us a new song and these songs of praise will have such a holy boldness, that these songs will actually bring deliverance. Deliverance of those who are held in such captivity. Deliverance of those that feel choked; feel a hand around their neck. These songs of deliverance, oh God, will produce in us and will testify, and we will be given explosive testimonies of the mighty deliverance of our God. I pray, oh God, that your Holy Spirit would come over Deborah in her quiet time, that you would give her a new song. Give us all, oh God, the power of your spirit to have explosive testimonies: explosive testimonies! Lord Jesus, I pray for explosive testimonies, that everybody knows it is at your hand that God has moved. Amen.
- Lord, we are crying out to you tonight to release your breath of life into the voices being silenced. Our enemy has required of us a song of fear and destruction; but the people of New Life are rising up above a song of death and silence to a song of victory and defeat over the enemy. Our answer, Lor, is, “Yes, we will sing our song in spite of our captivity.” We believe tonight as a House of Prayer that He is going to give us a new song and we will sing it with holy boldness. These songs will be songs of deliverance because we are no longer slaves to fear and death. We will testify with explosive testimonies because we are no longer held in bondage. We are surrounded by the arms of the Father, and we rise up as we sing our song of freedom. Amen.
