- “A Bowl Full of Prayers” Chronicles:
 - Lord, let our prayers be set before you. Let these prayers contribute to a bowl of prayers and in these prayers are the healing of your people. By these prayers, O God, Let the wicked fall into their own nets while I escape safely. By these prayers, O God, let it be that our gentle words are a tree of life. By these gentle prayers, O God, let it create in us a pattern of worship that will change. In this bowl of prayers, O God, let these prayers be and say, “Our eyes are fixed on Him.” And the seal upon the bowl of prayers is holy forever. Amen.
 - Lord God, let our prayers be set before You; and as our bowl full of prayers set before you is filled to overflowing, we ask that you would pour forth your mercy and grace over each one. Lord, heal your people and let your gentle words be a tree of life. Let the wicked fall into their own nets while we escape safely. Consequently, our pattern of worship will change as our eyes are fixed on you. For you Lord, are holy forever. Lord, this Sunday, let our prayer be set before thee as incense, and the lifting up of our hands as the evening sacrifice. In Jesus name.
 - Lord, we come before you as a House of Prayer asking you to let our prayers be set before You tonight like incense. We have a bowl full of prayer in us believing you to heal your people. You have been faithful to hear our prayers and to answer, and so we ask you to let the wicked fall into their own nets while I escape safely, Lord. You have also been faithful to breathe your breath of life on us as we speak and as we pray; and so we declare that your gentle words are a tree of life to us. As we come together on Sunday, we pray for all those who will be here that your pattern of worship will change in us in response to who you are and by the moving of your hand. And now we close our time of prayer to say, our eyes are fixed on Him, as he is holy forever. And we say together yes and amen.
 - Father, this day let our prayers be set before you as a sweet-smelling sacrifice. Let New Life Church be known as a church with a bowl full of prayers that spill over with the essence of a heart of love. Father, that our desires are your desires; that your people will be healed from the wicked devices of our enemies. Father, let the wicked fall into their own nets. Lord, let us hide in your glory where we can find a way to escape safely before our enemies’ eyes. Lord, we live in a world where we need to hear your gentle words and become a tree of life with a grateful pattern of worship that will change our lives to be more like Christ as we keep our eyes fixed on You, for you Father are holy forever in your mercy and love. Amen.
