- “The Fear of the Lord” Chronicles:
 - But know that the fear of the Lord is what sets us apart from the world. Our consecration is held up in the fear of the Lord. The fear of the Lord causes us to have bountiful joy in our heart. We can be assured to live happily ever after because of the fear of the Lord. Because of the fear of the Lord, we can dwell in safety all our days. In the fear of the Lord, wonder can be found among us. The fear of the Lord will cause His remnant to remain faithful. The fear of the Lord will cause the cap to blow off the well pouring forth, life, hope, and peace. Among Carolyn, Steve and Kelly Watson, Maritza, Ivan, Faye, Caleb, Ron, Mark, Sarah, Ray, Elizabeth, Melissa, Jesse, and Graham and Rachel. May all those that I just named receive what God has given you and promise you. In Jesus name.
 - Lord, we speak into the sanctuary tonight that the Lord has set us apart at New Life Church to serve him and his kingdom. Consecrate us, O Lord, in this holy place, to do the work that you have called us to do. You have been a bountiful joy in the hearts of those that are sick, and we declare all of those with infirmities will live happily ever after. They will live, and not die, according to your word, Lord. Because the fear of the Lord is in this house, we walk in abundant love and strength, and we dwell in great safety. Remember my word to you, New Life Church: I will do wonders among you as I have promised, saith the Lord, because you have been faithful to serve me. The well is uncapped and coming forth in this house, so rejoice and activate your spirit for this new awakening. We speak life, hope, peace into every individual that walks through these doors on Sunday. Let the glory of the Lord fall in this place. It is time. Amen.
 - But know that the Lord has set apart His people for his divine purposes. He has consecrated them through the blood of Christ unto himself, for such a time as this. As his people, He is filling us with bountiful joy in our hearts and assurance that it is his will that all his people embrace the hope that they will live happily ever after. You remember that the fear of the Lord is our strength and that he makes us to lie down in safety. So, we have great anticipation for the wonders you have promised to do among us. May we be known in heaven as your faithful ones. And we are overjoyed that the well living water is now uncapped and coming forth. We speak life, hope, and peace into that proclamation, and we decree, Lord, “Let it be so unto your people, Lord.” May your glory come upon us. In Jesus’ name, amen.
 - But know that the Lord has set apart; through God's command Satan shall depart. God bless the day that New Life was able to consecrate this ground; through the Lord's love and grace many souls have been saved and found. Thank you, Lord, for you have put bountiful joy in my heart; through you, my sins and failures shall now depart. Know that you shall live happily ever after; through Jesus who is the forgiveness master. Dwell in the safety of our Lord's shelter; don't let Satan pull you down to burn and swelter. The Lord will do wonders among his faithful people; even those without church walls or a steeple. The faithful people of God can stand against any storm; through his faith and grace any problem will transform. The well is uncapped and coming forth in a mighty fountain; I want faith enough to move any mountain. Speak life, hope, and peace over all those that are lost; show them the way to Jesus at any cost. Amen.

- But know that the Lord hath set apart your life, Graham, and he is calling you to continue to consecrate your life in preparation for this next season of your journey. I pray and believe that as Sunday arrives, you will be in the place to say, "You have put bountiful joy in my heart." As you move with the Lord in this place of joy, you will live happily ever after, and you will dwell in safety. And as you follow this path of life that the Lord has for you, the Lord will do wonders among you. He is calling you out as the faithful and among the faithful because the well is uncapped and coming forth over you and through you as the Lord opens up your destiny from the healing rivers of his throne room. His heart is for you, Graham, and he speaks life, hope, and peace over you tonight for all the days of your life. In Jesus' name, amen.
- Prophetic Word from Dan Hanselman: For Sunday, the Lord said he will rend the heaven over this place. The angels are waiting to be released on your behalf. The Lord is standing there ready to plead your case. Declare who you are, New Life; declare what you want the Lord to do. Declare where you are heading! Do not cap the well for it is overflowing and it will release the river with a mighty force. The time is here and now to move on what I have equipped you with. Do not sit back any longer for I am moving, and I need you to move with me. For now is the time to see my hand move on the land, on the people. For I am releasing the Holy Spirit and in new measure. Some will see it as a dove coming down; others will see it as fire. And the fire will consume the hay, wood, and stubble for this is the time of consecration. Yes, a time of consecration. For I am that I am; I want my people to rise up in their position and their authority. So, arise, arise now, for the time is now for you to stretch out your hand and set the captives free. Do not wait any longer, do not look to someone else to do it, but reach out your hand and say, be healed in the name of Jesus. Be delivered from the demonic forces that are holding up people's captivities. Do your part and watch what I do for you and through you in this time, in this hour. For I am on your side, and I am pleading your case, says the Lord.
