

KINGDOM CHRONICLES FROM HOUSE OF PRAYER

July 19, 2023

- Words for Chronicle Titled: “Our Voice Is the Trumpet”
 - Expectation—Psalm 5:1-3
 - I will look up—Psalm 5:1-3
 - Sacrifice of praise—Psalm 4:5
 - Our King and Our God—Psalm 5:2
 - Anticipation—Psalm 5:3
 - You defend us—Psalm 5:11
 - You make our way straight—Psalm 5:8
 - Restore our righteousness—Isaiah 1:24-26
 - God hearing our voice—Psalm 5:3
 - Let them ever shout for joy—Psalm 5:11
 - As you surround them with favor like a shield—Psalm 5:12
 - The goodness of the Lord
 - Wait on the Lord
 - Be of good courage—Psalm 27: 13-14
 - The sword and shield
 - I will tear down the walls
 - And you will surely do it—1 Thessalonians 5:24
- “Our Voice Is the Trumpet” Chronicles:
 - As we enter the sanctuary on Sunday, we come with great expectations of the many miracles we will see God perform. We will look up to the heavens with lifted hands as a sacrifice of praise and shout, “Lord, you are our King and our God.” Anticipation of your glory will be established in New Life Church on Sunday. We decree tonight in this place: you will defend those who are sick and will make their way straight. As a church, we believe that you will restore our righteousness in this region and this country. The praises of the people will shake the heavens as God hears our voices with great delight. As the healings and the miracles come to this sanctuary, let them ever shout for joy as the Holy Spirit rains upon this place.
 - As you surround your people with favor like a shield, let people everywhere say, “New Life Church knows the goodness of the Lord.” The Lord would say to all that are sick: wait upon the Lord and be of good courage because I will not disappoint you. The sword and the shield will surround my people in this place. Stand still and watch me tear down the walls that have held you back. Surely, I will do this for you, my children. saith the Lord.
 - Our lives in you, Lord, are continually full of great expectations. As we look up, we will offer a continual sacrifice of praise. You are our King and our God. All our hope and anticipation revolve around your righteous glory, for it is you Lord, who defends us in times of trouble. You make our way straight; you restore our righteousness. Oh God, we do hear your voice, but help us to hear it more clearly. Let your people ever shout for joy as you surround them with favor like a shield. We celebrate your goodness. As we wait on you, we will purpose to be of good courage. As we wield our sword and shield, then we will watch as you tear down the walls that impede our advance. We have great confidence that you will surely do it, Lord. In Jesus’ name.
 - Lord, we come to you tonight with great expectation for the way you are moving on behalf of Kelly, Jeff, Ron, Faye, Sarah, Ivan, and all of New Life Church; and we ask you to give them great expectation for what lies ahead for them. We stand in the gap for each of these and declare for them “I will look up” as they offer, once again, their sacrifice of praise. You are our King and our God, and we stand with Kelly, Jeff, Ron, Faye, Sarah, and Ivan for great anticipation to rise up as you defend us in front of the enemy; as you make our way straight on the path of healing; and as you restore our righteousness in the face of pain and distress. We rejoice with Kelly, Jeff, Ron, Faye, Sarah, and Ivan that God hearing our voice is an unending blessing, and we ask that you let them ever shout for joy as you surround them with favor like a shield as you usher in their complete and total healing. May the goodness of the Lord rest on the minds, the bodies, and the spirits of Kelly, Jeff, Ron, Faye, Sarah, and Ivan as they wait on the Lord to pour out his grace and mercy upon them. May each of these precious ones be of good courage as you empower them to lift the sword and shield that you have bestowed upon each of them. And as we, New Life Church, stand in agreement on behalf of Kelly, Jeff, Ron, Faye, Sarah, and Ivan, each of us will declare “I will tear down the walls that surround them”, and you will surely do it. And we say, yes and amen.

- Prophetic word from Dan Hanselman: When I was here earlier, the cross came to me as like the Lord has set the cross in this place. And though it's a heavy cross, I did not call you to carry it alone. For I am with you to take you through the battle—anything that the enemy will throw at you, for that cross is the key to deliverance. That cross I have set in your heart and it's a key to your heart, and I turned to release my love and faithfulness to you. I surround you with my love. Because of the cross, you are mine and you will see; you will see my hand move in a mighty powerful way for this is the time of my love being poured out through you to others. You are my strength in this time and this hour as you pray and cry out to me. For those that you are crying out, for the loved ones, those are the ones that are hurting, the ones that are lost. The ones that are straying. You are calling them back with your prayers, you're calling them back because I am placing them on your heart. For that cross is the key turning with their names on it. Each one, each one will come into the fullness that I have called them into. Each one of you that is here will receive a double anointing to press in even deeper. Deeper into my presence, for you have my heart. You have my will, and I am with you to carry you through those hard places. Healing is coming forth in a mighty wave. There is a wave that is sweeping upon this congregation that will flow out. You will take it with you. You are My right hand, right now. So, rise up, rise up. Do not be silent. Do not worry and fret about tomorrow. For I have it in my hand. I have you in my hand and I am holding the shield and the sword. You will speak forth with that sword cutting through what the enemy has placed in front of you. The obstacles, the barriers, you will slice through them. You will bring down the walls. You will see great and mighty things happen because I am going before you. Says the Lord.