

KINGDOM CHRONICLES FROM HOUSE OF PRAYER

July 26, 2023

- Words for Chronicle Titled: “He Restores”

- Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak—Psalm 6:2
- Heal me, O Lord—Psalm 6:2
- I know your faithful love is toward me—Psalm 6:4
- A guaranteed deposit—2 Corinthians 1:21
- Receive our prayers—Psalm 6:8
- From his temple he hears us—Psalm 18:6
- And he restores the weary—Psalm 6:6
- Suddenly—Psalm 6:10
- Thunderous cry—Psalm 6:8
- It is time for my hand to move, says the Lord—Psalm 6:9, Daniel 7:22
- God is our refuge and our strength—Psalm 46:1
- Confident faith is our strength—Hebrews 10:8-9

- “He Restores” Chronicles:

- Tonight, as we come before you in your house, have mercy upon us, O Lord, for we are weak without your presence. We cry out to you, O Lord. Heal all with afflictions through your great glory and power. Father, we will constantly remind ourselves of the faithful love you have for us as a guaranteed deposit in our heavenly bank account for healing. From his temple, he hears us and receives our prayers as we pray for all that are sick and hurt tonight. Only you can restore the weary hearts as you, Lord, move suddenly among your people. With a thunderous cry we hear the Lord say, “It is time for my hand to move,” because I am your refuge and your strength during these troubled times. We have confident faith in our strength because you, Lord, have been faithful to watch over our people at New Life Church. So, again, we say, Lord, it is time. Amen.
- We ask that you have mercy upon us, O Lord, for we are weak. But you do bring strength to our weakness, and you do heal us, O Lord. We know your faithful love to deliver is toward us. It is a guaranteed deposit in our heavenly accounts. So, Lord, receive our prayers from your temple and hear our supplications, Lord, that you would show mercy and restore the weary, suddenly! Lord, hear our thunderous cry, and the Lord replies, “It is time for my hand to move; for I am your refuge and your strength, and because of your confident faith in me, I will continue to be your strength” declares the Lord. Amen.
- Have mercy upon us, O Lord, in our time of weakness. Hear our cry for healing, O Lord, in our time of need. We know of your faithful love towards us, Lord. We are grateful for the guaranteed deposit you made within us. O Lord, receive our prayers and petitions from a humble heart. We know, Lord, that when we believe, you will hear us from your temple. O Lord, you restore the weary with a sudden hand of mercy. You, Lord, will show yourself with a thunderous cry of deliverance. O Lord, we welcome the timely movement of your mighty hand upon us, for we know you are our refuge and strength as we hold a confident faith in you. Amen.
- Have mercy upon Me O Lord for I am weak; only you can lift up the hurting, broken, and meek. Heal Me, O Lord, like no other can; for you knew what I needed before it all began. I know your faithful love is toward me and your chosen few; blessed is the day that you say, it's your name I knew. Give us all a guaranteed deposit into our eternal bank; don't get on board with Satan or your ship will sink. Receive our prayers unto your holy altar; with him I will never fail or falter. From his temple he hears us loud and clear; for all of his children He holds close and dear. Through his love and grace, He restores the weary; only he can lift you up out of the dark and dreary. When Jesus moved on me so suddenly and fast; I knew at that moment all my sins were in my past. The day Jesus was crucified there was a thunderous cry like no other; it was then that Satan was pushed down to smother. It is time for my hand to move, says the Lord, our friend; He will always stay steady to never break or bend. God is our refuge and our strength like a multitude of layers; keep giving it all to him, through all your worship and prayers. Confident faith is our strength in praise; above all else is his name that we will raise. Amen.

- The prayer of JD: Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak. My spirit and my soul are cast down, but I am crying out for you to heal me, O Lord. From where I am, I struggle to see you because of my grieving spirit, but deep within I know your faithful love is toward me. And from the depths of my heart, I know from years past that I have a guaranteed deposit that you receive our prayers, and you return, O Lord, to deliver us. I have heard that from his temple, he hears us; and he restores the weary suddenly. So, I cry out for you to hear me and for you to answer. And then suddenly, there is a thunderous cry from heaven as the Lord answers, “It is time for my hand to move,” says the Lord. And as the Lord's hand moves from the throne room of heaven and as our sovereign God rises up, I shout and declare from my place of healing that God is our refuge and our strength, and God's gift of confident faith is our strength. And this House of Prayer declares in agreement with this yes and amen.
- Dan Hanselman—Prophetic Word: Psalm 6:9 & Daniel 7:22: So, we are declaring that the enemy, though he has come to ravish the body of Christ, there is no way that the Lord, the Ancient of Days, will allow him to take them out before their time. We are crying out and he has heard our cries. He has heard and he is moving on our mercy that we have cried out for. We have cried out for the different ones throughout a lifetime. It seems like we have not seen, but we are seeing his hand move. For the Ancient of Days is rising up and releasing his judgment, his verdict, against the enemy for our sake to bring forth His kingdom on this earth and draw in the harvest. For the sun is shining upon his tree and those that are facing the sun will ripen first and come forth and help gather in the harvest as they come in; and we will see things happen in a mighty sudden way. “There is not a thing that is impossible for me to do,” says the Lord. For my hand is greater than the hand of the enemy. And though he has thought upon you a heavy burden, my burden is light and I remember removing that burden that he has placed on you and over you for your household will be saved and you will see the kingdom move mightily on your behalf. If you have prayed for your family members and the members round about you, they are in my hand, and I am moving on their behalf. For there is favor being released upon them, and that sickness and disease that they had been fighting will disappear in a sudden moment as I touch them with my healing hand. And my power is released to set the captives free with all demonic powers that have held them in captivity. Just as the demoniac was and could not be changed. But Jesus came and he ran to him, and he was set free. You will see the demonic set free and come into their right minds. For I am moving in this time and in this hour, and you will see, you will see, you will see great and mighty things come in and about in this time and this season for it is time for my hand to move. So says the Lord. Amen.