- “Prayer Vigil” Chronicles:

- Rejoice in the Lord always, let us pray without ceasing. We give thanks Father and walk in hope and peace in all circumstances. We find comfort in our affliction, for you are with us. Plans of hope and of future build our faith as we come to your perfect love. Holy Spirit, be the Lord of our lips and guide our hearts and our thoughts. Show us how to effectively pray the word. Father, saturate us in your presence and enlarge our hearts. Lord, rescue us from the sins and sickness of this world. Strengthen us according to thy word. On our knees and open hearts hear our supplication. Humble us O' Lord so we can do your work. Allow us to be a holy vessel fill with the spirit of the Lord. We will listen to you O Lord, align our hearts with yours. In this place is where your presence dwells. Heal us, O Lord, and we will be healed. We thank you, O Lord, that we can come as we are to you. You are always enough.
- We will pray without ceasing at New Life Church during our Prayer Vigil. Your promise to comfort us in our affliction will be fulfilled during this time, and all the plans of hope and of future will be seen and completed. We will pray the word and it will come alive in our spirits. Enlarge our hearts to receive all that you have in store for us, Lord. During this perilous time, let us know that you will rescue us, as we put our trust in you. During this time of praying, you will strengthen us according to your word if we will be obedient. Lord, during this week, hear our supplication and search our hearts and heal our people. As a result of our sincere I will listen to you in this holy place. And I will heal you saith the Lord. Come as you are, says your Father.
- Lord, we enter your gates with Thanksgiving with the intent to pray to you without ceasing until you have heard and acknowledged our supplications. Lord, it is your pleasure to comfort those in their affliction and to restore their plans of hope and for their future. Lord has given to us, your servants, to pray the word as we are obedient to your call. Your gift to us is that you will enlarge our hearts. Lord, rescue us from the busyness of life that we might spend time in your presence. Strengthen us according to your word. Hear our supplication as we draw nigh unto you to hear your voice. We know your reply will be and “I will listen to you in this place”. We thank you God that your ears are always open for the cry of your people, and it is always your will to heal. Lord, we plan to come before you as we are fully expecting you to come as you are and together by your grace our people will all be healed.

- Lord, we submit as a church to your call to pray without ceasing as we come together for this prayer vigil. There is comfort in my affliction, so we rise above any stronghold that would try to hold us back from participating in this week-long prayer vigil. You have promised in your word that you have plans of hope and of future for those who are coming to pray out of obedience and for those for whom we will pray. We commit to pray the word as you enlarge our hearts to pray for these precious people. Lord, rescue us from any doubt or hopelessness as we come by faith to pray your heart. Let the enlarging begin in me and strengthen me according to thy word. We will cry aloud to you, and we trust you to hear our supplication because of your promise to us tonight that says, “And I will listen to you in this place.” For those for whom we pray, we will say, “Heal me, O' Lord”. And for those who are coming to pray we say, “Come as you are.” In Jesus name, Amen.
