2) Chronicle for Afghanistan:

Lord Jesus, we ask and pray for those people in Afghanistan that they need to find refuge. We ask and pray, oh God, that Your spirit will guide them. And where there will be tremendous misunderstanding, I pray that as your Holy Spirit guides them, they will be understood and that they can declare and it will be realized that You are the sanctuary. And the scepter of the enemy would be turned into the scepter of God. And it would bring to unrepentant hearts redemption. Lord Jesus, the devastation because of the love of money, the monetary gain that people are so frugal, but yet the revelation that it drives the nature of man. Lord God, it gives us a nonchalant feeling, but nevertheless, God Reigns. Nevertheless, God has the last word. I just pray into “Nevertheless God Reigns”. All of this devastation, all of this heartache, these people that will be martyred—Dear God, we pray that the last word “Nevertheless” is your word on this whole situation. Amen and Amen.

3) Chronicle for Afghanistan:

Lord, you are my refuge and my strength and you guide me in times of uncertainty. I do not understand what I see, but I declare the greatness of God in His sanctuary. The scepter of God will be seen in the unrepentant hearts of the people for redemption. A devastated land will see no monetary rewards. Nonetheless God will be victorious.

5) Chronicle for USA:

Let the strength of this nation be found in God's Temple. Lord, we will watch you preform your mighty works as we the people purify our hearts to worship you. Enlighten us to your greatness, and we will honor you all the days of our life. Break the chains of iniquity off of us that we may put on the garment of praise and worship. We will not parish but will draw near to you as you quicken us in these last days.
