- “We Thank You” Chronicles:

- We thank you, Lord; in thee do I put my trust. We thank you, Lord, that once and for all you've settled all things. We thank you, Lord, that you are a rewarder and that you prosper the righteous. We thank you, Lord, that you're the one who looks deep into every heart. We thank you, Lord God, that your wraparound presence is my shield. We thank you, Lord, that somehow, you'll make our night shine like the day. Only you can do that Lord. We thank you, Lord, that you have not abandoned those who seek you. We thank you, Lord, because I will sing praises to the Lord most high. We thank you, Lord, that we gather around you as you preside over us. And we're so thankful for the strength of your forgiveness.
- Father, rescue us once and for all as we put our trust in you. Father, look deep in our hearts and reward, as well as prosper, your righteous in time of need. Father, wrap us up in your presence as a shield that shines out of the night with the brightness of the day. Father, we will sing your praises, Lord most high, for you have not abandoned those who seek you. Father, the strength of your forgiveness causes us to gather around you as you preside over us. Father, we thank you.
- Father God, as we gather tonight to do your will, in thee do we put our trust and in all of life's circumstances. We declare tonight that once and for all we will stand on your promises in this sanctuary. As we have observed you, Lord, reward and prosper the righteous. Lord, we know you look deep into every heart of each of your children and provide a wraparound presence as a shield for all those who desperately need to experience your glory and your power. The night will shine like the day as your glory penetrates the soul of all of those on the prayer list. In New Life Church tonight, we speak into the spiritual realm, “You have not abandoned those who seek you in this holy place.” The angels will celebrate with us as we sing praises to the Lord most high and worship His goodness. On Sunday, we will gather around you, Lord, as you preside over us to worship and to praise your name. Let our hearts be pure before you, Lord, as we demonstrate the strength of your forgiveness. Move on this holy place, oh God, on Sunday. Amen.
- We thank you, Lord, for tonight. We are full of hope because our hope is in you. We believe in your great power, Lord, and strive to walk daily into your presence. We thank you that your Word remains the truth, and that even in our most dire hardships, you remain faithful. In you we put our trust, Lord. When you speak to our hearts, Lord, your word is final and in the examination of our hearts you speak truth once and for all, and we say yes and amen. Your wrap around presence is our shield. Thank you, Lord, and as we walk in grace through struggles and trials and what can feel like the darkest of times, the night will shine like the day and you have not and will not abandon those who seek you. You will give them rest under the shadow of your wings. And in trials and joys, Lord, we will sing praise to the Lord most high. We rejoice in your faithfulness. And again Lord, we thank you. As we gather around you, and you preside over us, we seek your truth, your peace, and a deeper understanding of your heart. We revel in the strength of your forgiveness, mighty Father, and we thank you, Lord, for your love. We lift up hearts full of unbelief, and we thank you for speaking to those hearts. Thank you for meeting us where we are, Lord, and for your undying love. We rejoice and we will repeat again and again “We thank you.”

- In thee do I put my trust, O Lord, and once and for all, I ask that your great mercy will fall upon Star and Natalie. You reward and prosper the righteous so we trust you to move in this situation as only our God of the universe can do. O God, who looks deep into every heart, I ask you to penetrate the hearts of Star and Natalie with your infinite love and your peace that surpasses all of our understanding. O God, your wraparound presence is my shield every day, so I ask you to wrap your presence around the minds of Star and Natalie to be a shield against the arrows of the dark side that would try to penetrate their thoughts. O God, I ask that the night will shine like the day in the lives of Star and Natalie as they battle the darkness over their lives in the weeks and months ahead. You have not abandoned those who seek you, so I ask you to lead Star and Natalie on the path toward you. I pray that they will rise up in the morning in the face of tragedy and say, “I will sing praise to the Lord most high!” As a House of Prayer, we gather around you as you preside over us and as you preside over the lives of Star and Natalie. May the strength of your forgiveness flow over Star and Natalie today and always. And we thank you for moving over them as only you can do. And we say, yes and amen.
