2. “In My Distress, He Heard Me” Chronicles:

- Lord, I thank you that you have heard me as I have cried out to you and in my distress. I know, Lord, that my refuge comes from only you; and I look to your mercy and grace for my total deliverance. Father, we stand in faith as we are for the peace of God that passes all understanding in season and out. You are a good God. Deliver my soul, O Lord, because you are my healer and my strength because my help comes from only you. We cry out, O Lord. The time is now, O Lord, for a miracle because we hear the route to healing. There is no doubt he heard me in my distress. Amen
- He heard me so I will take refuge in the Lord, for I know there is my total healing. As we are at peace, whether it be in season or out of season, Lord, deliver my soul, O Lord. I know that my help comes from the Lord; and I am asking that my time of healing is now. Lord Jesus, show us the route that we should take. We will hear it from your voice. It's with this cry as you show us the route to take that you have heard us.
- The prayer of one in distress: I cried unto the Lord, and he heard me and met me in my place of distress. He came near to me, so I take refuge in the Lord for total healing. As I pray and cry out to the Lord, I hear the heavenly host declare, “We are for peace in and around your body!” I receive this word of peace in season and out; and I believe your word to deliver my soul, O Lord, from the lies of defeat and despair and unhealthy anxiousness. I stand on your promise that my help comes from the Lord; and by faith I claim that the time is now for you to move for all of us. So, as we wait on you, we will hear the route of your path for us; and I will stand in the knowing that he heard me. Amen.
