- “Title IX” Chronicles:

- Mischievous Devices of evil will not be undetected by God. The loss of the innocence of God's little ones will see the wrath of God; and the evil Title IX will be made aware of your almighty God as being responsible for stopping this unrighteous act. But He who knows the truth, God's people, and understands the Lord's will, pray and rise up to fight this battle. O ye wicked ones of the earth, hear the word of the Lord: repent because the time is short. May the unrighteous take the Lord into account when they think of eternity. The Synergy of the Ages is here, and God's people must respond. In the Heavens we hear the echo of the Heavenly Father that says, “I Ain't Having It!” But the people of God will not fear, but will stand with power, love, and a sound mind during this time no matter how it appears. The children of God will not wrestle with evil principalities because the word of God will fight our battles and preserve our families. When the righteous are in authority, our families thrive in Jesus' name.
- Lord, through the power of prayer, we stand in agreement against the mischievous device of the enemy that is trying to hijack Title IX, and thus, parental rights. We rebuke, in Jesus' name, this device of the enemy to bring about the loss of innocence in our children and our school systems. We stand in agreement tonight that by your Spirit, parents and all Christians are being made aware of the truth of this situation, and that a stirring is coming about and taking place in the hearts of your people to stand firm against the assignment of the enemy against the family. And we declare by your Spirit, “But he who knows the truth” will understand what the Lord's will is for the schools of our nation. We ask you, Lord, to give the leaders of our nations ears to hear the word of the Lord--even if they don't understand—and that they will take the Lord into account in every decision. We call forth the prayers of our ancestors to bring about a synergy of the ages. As a church, we stand with one heart, one mind, and one voice to say with a unified loud voice: “I AIN'T HAVING IT!” We agree with your word: NOT FEAR—POWER, LOVE, & A SOUND MIND”. We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers in dark places; so, we raise up Godly families in prayer, and we are asking You to bring those in authority into righteousness. Because when the righteous are in authority under your hand, we believe Godly justice will prevail. Raise up your church, Lord, to stand firm, and by prayer, to take back this nation and our children. Amen.
