2. Awakening, Surrendering to God's Sovereignty Chronicle:
 - All I got is always enough. You take us as we are. Your majesty shines in our lives, our hearts, our souls. It shines for all to see. Rise up, children of God, shine, bring in Christ Jesus. May judgment fall upon those trapped in sin, bound in despair, lacking in love. Pray for those trapped, bring weight to those prayers, draw nigh to God. Allow the Holy Spirit to be that Paraclete, our counselor, our advocate. Allow Holy Spirit to transform your life. Vow and pray with your life; seek the kingdom with your every breath. Take control of God's promises in your life. Walk every step in victory. Look and be drawn to the fire from the East. It burns with revival fueled with God's love.
3. Awakening, Surrendering to God's Sovereignty Chronicle:
 - With all I got, I worship you. Your majesty shines as you rise-up to protect Your people. Your judgment falls on the righteous; but we, Your people, will shine. You will rain upon us, and we will draw nigh to you. Holy Spirit, our Paraclete, we vow and pay in earnest to you Oh God as you, not us, control the victory of the fire from the East.
4. Awakening, Surrendering to God's Sovereignty Chronicle:
 - Dear God, this is all I got. As I stand before you, Your majesty so shines. It causes me to rise-up in great honor and joy that Your judgment has been held because of Christ. Let Your Holy Spirit rain down upon us as we draw nigh to You. Let Your Spirit walk beside us as we walk in this vow and as we pay homage, pay respect, and pay honor that You control the universe; that victory has been won. And your testimony is that You will send fire from the east, the east Oh God, Your Holy Spirit. The east of God where the sun rises. You tell us to look, oh God, prophetically to the East. The prophetic message is that is where the sun arises, the Son Arises. The fire of God is when the Son arises in all of our hearts. Let it be done, oh God, in this parable, in this Chronicle; let it be in this house and those who are watching online, let it be in their hearts. Let it invade us all, oh God, and the power of your Holy Spirit. In Jesus name, Amen.
