Wrath is righteous indignation
that demands justice.

For the wrath
of God is revealed
from heaven against
all ungodliness and
unrighteousness of
men, who by their
unrighteousness
suppress the truth.

Romans 1:18 ESV

“The one who
believes in the Son
has eternal life, but
the one who rejects
the Son will not see life;
instead, the wrath
of God remains
on him.”

John 3:36 ESV

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. ²⁴ They are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented him as an atoning sacrifice in his blood, received through faith.... ²⁶ God presented him to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so that he would be righteous and declare righteous the one who has faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:23-26 CSB

...there was only one possible way for God to give away his righteousness and still be true to both his justice and his mercy—to offer up his own Son. So now, because we stand on the faithfulness of Jesus, God declares us righteous in his eyes!

Romans 3:26 TPT

Lord, I have been a sinner from birth,
from the moment my mother conceived me.

Psalm 51:5 TPT

”David is so overwhelmed with the consciousness of his own sin that as he looks back on his life he realizes that he was sinful from the beginning. As far back as he can think of himself, he realizes that he has had a sinful nature.”

Wayne Grudem

“Truly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave of sin.”

John 8:34 CSB

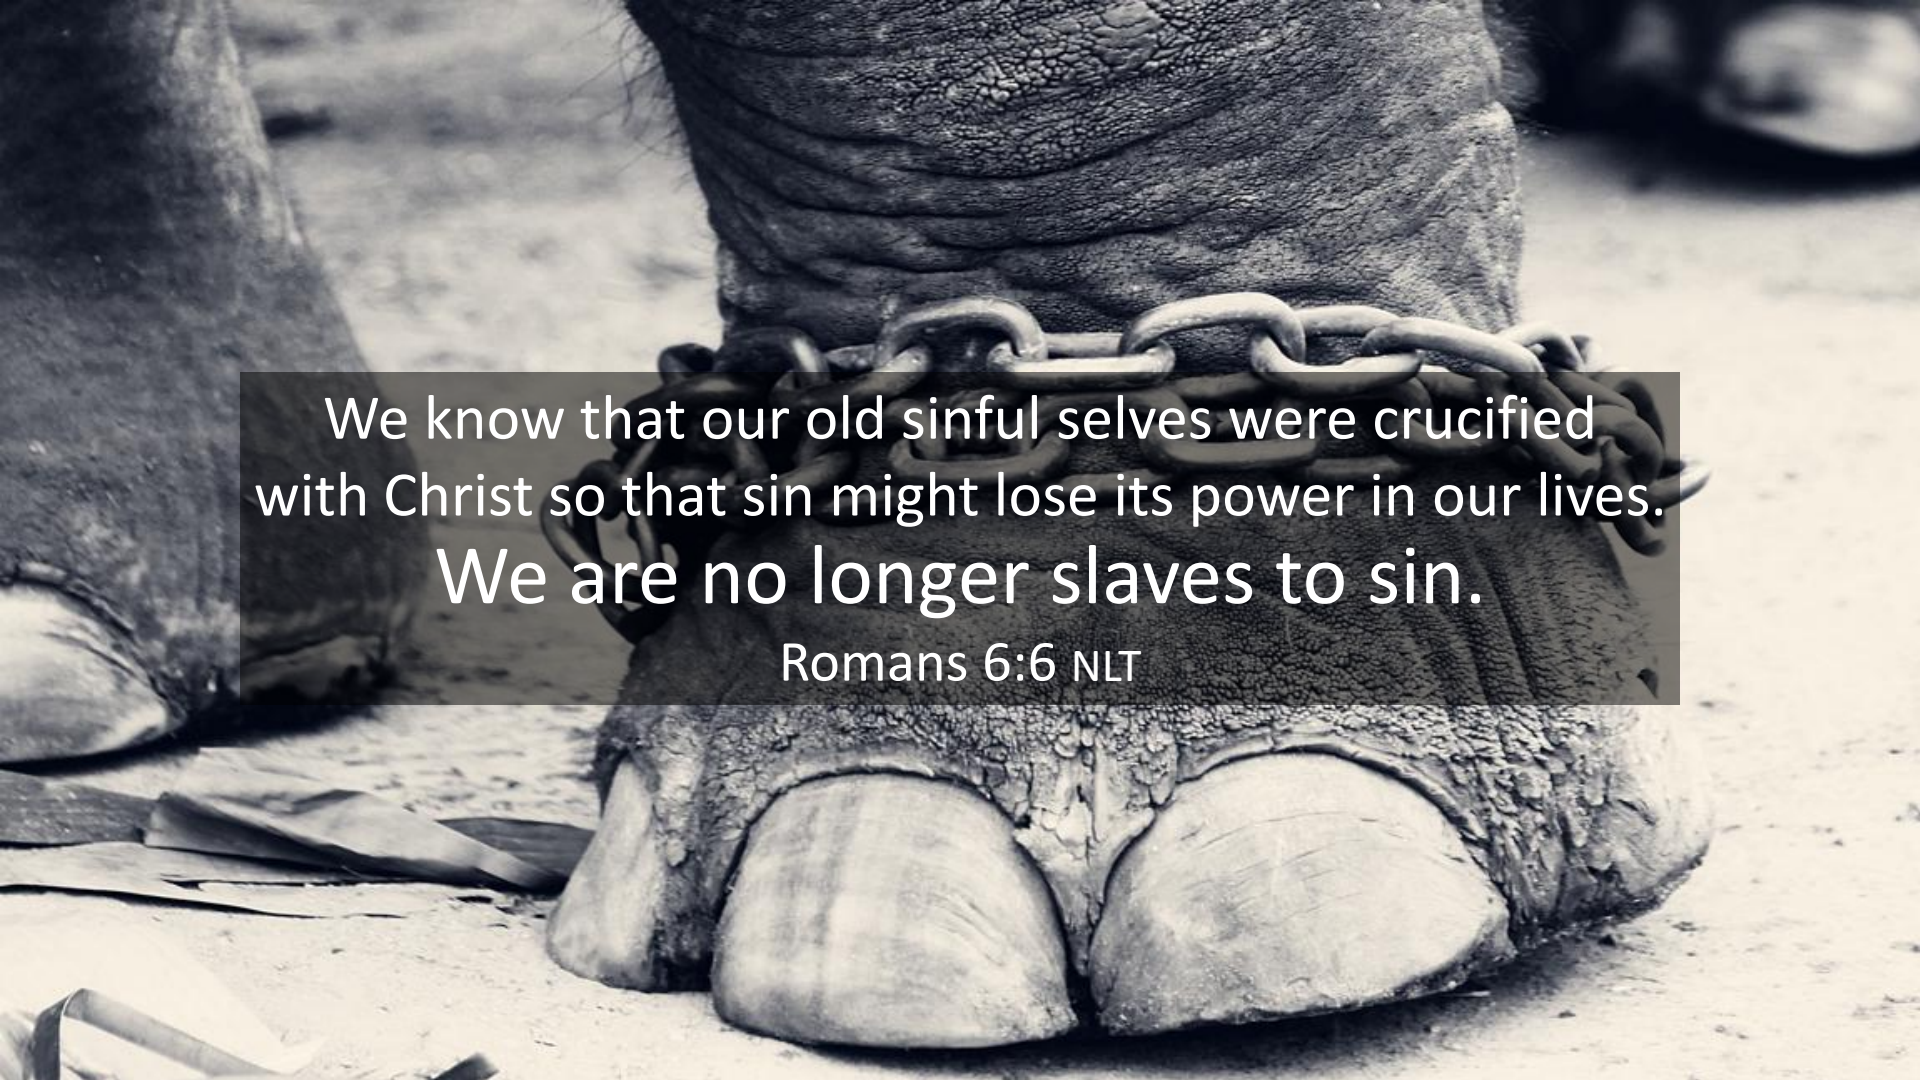

We know that our
old self was crucified
with him in order that
the body of sin might be
brought to nothing, so
that we would no longer
be enslaved to sin.

Romans 6:6 ESV

“to render
ineffective the
power or force
of something”

We know that our
old self was crucified
with him in order that
the body of sin might be
brought to nothing, so
that we would no longer
be enslaved to sin.

Romans 6:6 ESV

We know that our old sinful selves were crucified
with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives.
We are no longer slaves to sin.

Romans 6:6 NLT

But I say, walk by the Spirit,
and you will not gratify
the desires of the flesh.

Put off your old self.
Put on the new self,
created after the likeness of God in true righteousness
and holiness.

We are no longer slaves to sin.

So then, don't let sin
rule your body, so that
you do what it wants.

Therefore, if anyone is in
Christ, he is a new creation.
The old has passed away;
behold, the new has come.
