

What Does the Bible Say About Healing?

A scenic landscape featuring a rocky hilltop under a clear blue sky. The hill is covered with sparse vegetation and scattered rocks. In the background, a line of trees displays vibrant autumn colors in shades of orange, yellow, and red. A paved path winds through the foreground, where a group of people is walking. The overall scene is bright and clear, suggesting a sunny day.

Is healing strategically important?

The background image shows a scenic landscape with a church in the distance, surrounded by trees with autumn foliage. The church has a prominent steeple. The landscape is rocky and grassy, with a clear blue sky. Four circular text boxes are overlaid on the image, each containing a statement about the relationship between the gospel, healing, and the church.

We cannot fully represent the gospel without healing and deliverance.

We cannot accurately represent the character of God, most especially his compassionate heart, without healing.

We cannot fully honor “all the promises of God” found in Scripture if healing is ignored.

The church will not reach “the stature of the fullness of Christ” without doing the works he did, including healing.

Ephesians 4:11-13 ESV

And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, ¹² to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³ until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ....

“We can get only as far as we can get rid of the ‘traditions of men’ regarding healing. We have to teach people what the Scriptures actually teach on the subject.”
F.F. Bosworth, Christ the Healer

LORD, your word is forever;
it is firmly fixed in heaven.

Psalm 119:89 CSB

...you have exalted above all things
your name and your word.

Psalm 138:2b ESV

For all the promises of God
in Him are Yes, and in Him Amen....

2 Corinthians 1:20 NKJV

The word of God is... able to judge the opinions and attitudes of the heart.

Hebrews 4:12 SWT

of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers.

1 Thessalonians 2:13
ESV

“I will put my laws

“Pay attention to what you hear:

with the measure you use, it will be measured to you,
and still more will be added to you.

²⁵ For to the one who has, more will be given,
and from the one who has not,
even what he has will be taken away.”

Proverbs 2:1-6 ESV

My son, if you receive my words
and treasure up my commandments with you, ² making your ear attentive to wisdom
and inclining your heart to understanding;
³ yes, if you call out for insight
and raise your voice for understanding,
⁴ if you seek it like silver
